EPISODE: 8
「激突②」

I LEFT MY LOVE IN MY HOMETOWN COLONY TO JOIN THE WAR AS A STUDENT.

DURING THE ONE

WAR.

AT FIRST I WAS HAPPY, BUT AFTER HEARING FROM THE
OTHER PILOTS, IT BECAME CLEAR THAT THE MOST PROMISING CANDIDATES WERE ASSIGNED A ZAKU II OR RICK DOM.

FOLLOWING COMPLETION OF MOBILE
SUIT TRAINING,
THE MACHINE ASSIGNED TO ME WAS THE LATEST MODEL OF THE TIME,
THE GELGOOG.

THE PEOPLE CHOSEN FOR THE GELGOOG'S
NEW MODEL WERE SEEN AS ONLY NUMBERS
AND STATISTICS.

REALIZED.

BY NOT

BATTLE WITH MY COMRADES.

I LOST
ALL MEANING AND PURPOSE
IN WHAT I STOOD FOR
...AND...

THERE WAS NO HOPE IN RESTORING THE
OF ZEON.

IF I HAD SURVIVED THE ONE YEAR WAR, I SHOULD OF RETURNED TO MY HOMETOWN AND STARTED A NORMAL FAMILY WITH MY LOVE.

IF I HAD DIED IN THE
ONE YEAR
WAR, THERE WOULD OF BEEN NOTHING TO WORRY ABOUT.

IF I HAD REALLY WANTED TO FIGHT, I SHOULD HAVE JOINED OPERATION
STARDUST AND FOUGHT ALONGSIDE MY COMRADES.

THE ONLY THING THAT COULD MAKE ME FORGET
THE FEELINGS OF MISERY
AND REGRET WAS THE FEELING OF EXCITEMENT ON THE BATTLEFIELD.

I LOST OUT ON LIFE.

THINGS
ESCALATED, AND THE BATTLES
I FOUGHT BECAME MORE AND MORE RISKY.

I KEPT
...
LOOKING FOR A CHANCE TO DIE.

FINALLY,
A STRONG ENEMY.

I HOPED I COULD FIGHT THEM
SOMEDAY.

GUNDAM

IT WAS

THERE

WHERE I DIDN'T HEAR THE PHRASE

FROM MY ALLIES.

I AM,
AXIS

BLAM!

MSW-004 Gundam Kestrel

A prototype mobile suit under development by the Titans before its capture and further modifications by the AEUG. Optional equipment, referred to as "exterior" were also available for this machine.

Van participated in Anti-Earth Federation movements with his childhood friend Danica, seen here on the left.

This Gundam unit and their pilots fall under two different factions

The MSW-004 Gundam Kestrel was piloted by Van Asiliaino of the AEUG. Possessing similar physical attributes as Jorm, he was able to use the machine to its full potential.

The high mobility of this suit created G-forces that exceeded the limits of tolerability for an ordinary person. Of note, the Gundam Kestrel is a modified mobile suit that was captured from the Titans. Originally, it was intended to be piloted by Rossweisse, a Cyber Newtype.

▲ Battle data from Van was used in the simulation battle against Jorm.

▲ During simulation battles, the suit was equipped with variable exterior that further strengthened its abilities.

Van Asiliaino

A cadet dedicated to Anti-Federation activities

While a cadet in the Earth Federation Forces, he accidentally found information on the 30 Bunch Incident. Following that discovery, he became involved in Anti-Federation activities. Later, he became a member of the AEUG through Keraunos. He pilots the Gundam Kestrel and fought in the Gryps war.

His flight simulation data was used as specifications against Jom's Gullinbursti.

Rosswisse

A Cyber Newtype "unfinished product"

A Cyber Newtype who received training at the Oakland Institute. Although she demonstrated precise mobile suit control skills, she lacked in response time, earning her the designation "unfinished product." The mobile suit she used was the prototype for the Gundam Kestrel, also developed in the research institute, with the goal of her becoming the primary pilot.
